NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release – March 28, 2017

Town of Pelican- On Monday, March 27, 2017 at 6:26 AM, Oneida County Dispatch received a 911 call reporting an armed home invasion to a residence in the Town of Pelican. The caller reported that in the early morning hours, a white male wearing all black clothing entered the residence. While in the residence, the male armed himself. The male was described as being tall and muscular. It appears that the residence was specifically targeted.

The investigation is continuing. Any questions should be directed to Captain Lloyd Gauthier at 715-361-5100.
