NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release-May 9, 2018

The Oneida County Sheriff's Office will be conducting an active shooter training drill at the Oneida County Courthouse on May 12, 2018 and May 19, 2018. Various law enforcement agencies from within and around Oneida County will be taking part in this training. The intent of this training is to better prepare law enforcement, Oneida County EMS and county employees on what to do if there is an active shooter event at the Oneida County Courthouse. The courthouse will be closed to the public during this time.

On May 12, 2018 at 12:00 PM, the media is invited to come to the Oneida County Courthouse by Door #1 to obtain information about the training. For further information, please contact Sgt. Brad Fogerty at the Oneida County Sheriff's Office at 715-361-5201 or email him at bfogerty@co.oneida.wi.us.
