NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release – June 18, 2018

Update

The Oneida County Sheriff's Office continues to work the sexual assault reported on June 10, 2018 in the Town of Pelican. At this point, the victim is unable to provide us with a detailed description of the perpetrator. We are awaiting the results of evidence that is currently being processed by the Wisconsin State Crime Laboratory. We continue to seek the community's assistance with any information that they may have about this incident. Anyone with any information should contact Captain Terri Hook at 715-361-5150.
