ONEIDA COUNTY JAIL Huber Transfer Request

Per Wisconsin State Statute §303.8(6), in order for an individual to transfer a jail sentence, the sentencing court must authorize transfer. All transfer requests must originate from the county of commitment. All applicants applying to transfer to Oneida County must also see Oneida County Huber Rules for further information, forms, and fees. Oneida County does not allow transfers to agencies participating in bracelet programs.

The form below must be filled out completely. Incomplete requests will not be processed.

There is a $30.00 fee for each Huber Transfer request. Fees need to be paid when this request is turned in or mailed to the Oneida County Sheriff's Office.

NOTE: REPORT TO JAIL DATE IS SET BY THE COURT AND MAY ONLY BE CHANGED BY THE COURT

I understand that my acceptance as a Huber Inmate is conditional, and such status may be terminated with or without cause. Furthermore, I understand that if my status as a transfer to another county from Oneida County is terminated, I will lose Huber privileges for the remainder of my sentence, and I will be responsible for the cost of extradition back to Oneida County.
